Women In the Law Conference

Saturday, November 3, 1979 -- exact time and place to be announced later. Proposed topics are in areas of financial relationships, family law, employment, health, and criminal law. If you would like to participate or conduct a workshop, contact Esther Chamberland, office - 732-1237, home - 261-4244.

University of Hawaii Law School Workshop

After November 1, 1979, Hawaii Women Lawyers will conduct a workshop with law school students on job hunting techniques, types of jobs available, what to expect in practice, government vs. private practice vs. corporate practice, etc.

Jobs

The Divorce Clinic is looking for two staff attorneys to work half time each (can be flexible). Salary higher than comparable position with Legal Aid. Clinic provides office and will permit private practice on side. Some family law experience desirable. Starting September. Contact Marybeth Bridges (Webster) at 538-3410.

Announcements

Space permitting HWL would like to announce job openings and provide a modified classified section for women lawyers (e.g., want to announce new job, want to sell or buy anything, share babysitting, etc.). Call Carol Lee, 521-6543 or Jo Kim, 537-2780, or Ruth Hood, 548-3096.

HWL has for sale 1-1/2 cases of tonic water and quinine water -- CHEAP!
