Judicial Selection. At our last meeting James Koshiba brought a copy of the application form for judicial appointments. The Commission had the Bar Association mail copies to all attorneys who qualified in terms of years of practice. Unfortunately, many women members did not receive the application. Harriet Bouslog has generously photocopied several copies of the application for our members. If you would like a copy, either to review or to apply, please contact Carol Mon Lee, 521-6543.

National Sexual Harassment Back-up Center. The Working Women's Institute has opened this back-up center in New York City. The Center provides assistance to attorneys throughout the US who are handling claims of sexual harassment in the workplace. Assistance in the preparation and development of sexual harassment cases, preparation of amicus curiae briefs and expert witness testimony are provided. Contact Joan Vermeulen, Director, Working Women's Institute, 593 Park Ave, New York, New York, 10021, 212-838-4420 for more information.

Judicial Campaign Techniques Institute for Women. This institute was held on April 11 in Kansas. Unfortunately, we did not receive the notice early enough to get it into our last newsletter. The Institute was co-sponsored by the National Women's Education Fund and the National Association of Women Judges. Please contact the NWEF at 1410 Q. Street, NW, Washington DC 20009 for written materials.

ERA Impact Project. This project was described in our last newsletter. If you worked on the Cassandra Barnett prison guard case, or the LeAnn Cagun name change case, or any unreported case concerning our state equal rights amendment, please contact Ramona Hussey at 988-7696 or the NOW Legal Defense & Education Fund, 36 W. 44th St., New York, N.Y. 10036.

Univ. of Hawaii Panel on Interviewing & Other Job Related Areas. Hawaii Women Lawyers' members Pamela J. Berman, Patricia Devlin, Rosemary Fazio and Carol Mon Lee spoke at the University of Hawaii School of Law to second and third year students on April 16. In addition to interviewing techniques, the panel discussed different types of practice (large, medium, small firms, government agencies and corporations) with reference to what to expect in terms of work, clients, salary, maternity leave, promotion, travel and other areas.

HWL Survey. The survey will be mailed to you by the end of April. It will be no longer than four pages and should take less than 45 minutes to complete. The survey is an important way for us to determine how women lawyers have fared in Hawaii.

Miscellaneous. Interested in co-purchasing a condo in the Makiki, Waikiki, downtown areas with a single professional woman who spends half time here in Oahu and other half on the Big Island? Call Carol Lee at 521-6543 for more information.
