We are pleased to have as our first keynote speaker to our annual meeting the Honorable Mayor Aileen Anderson. Additionally, we will be presenting HWL's Outstanding Woman Lawyer of the Year Award to a woman lawyer in recognition of her outstanding achievements. The Outstanding Woman Lawyer of the Year Award has been presented to Carol Mon Lee (1983) and Meredith Linell (1982). We hope you all will attend this year's luncheon!

Ballot Instructions: The slate proposed by the nominating committee and approved by the HWL Board is presented in the above ballot. If anyone wishes to write in a candidate's name, there is a blank available for each office for that purpose. Please place a check beside the name of the person for whom you're voting. Please also certify that you have voted only once and that you are a dues-paying member of HWL. Dues sent in at the same time as this ballot are timely sent for voting purposes. If you are unsure of your membership status, check the address label attached to this newsletter. Those labels with an asterisk (*) beside your name indicate dues paying status. Job Referral Service: The Federal Public Defender's Office is seeking a researcher/writer for a half-time position (full-time Summer). Send resume, writing sample and references to Michael R. Levine or Yvonne Chotzen, Federal Public Defender, P. O. Box 50269, Honolulu, HI 96850.

HWL Directory: Did you know there are almost 500 women licensed to practice law in Hawaii? Do you know who to refer a client to in another area of the State or in a different specialty than yours? Do other people know your areas of expertise? The HWL Board of Directors has decided to produce a directory of women attorneys in Hawaii to identify us for each other and for the community. We hope to finance this project through member contributions. Thus far, HWL thanks Judge Betty Vitousek and Rosemary Fazio for their donations towards the costs of production, estimated at a total of about $750. We need your help, too. Please send HWL your contributions.

In the meantime, we are collecting the information for the directory. Enclosed with this month's newsletter, besides your ballot, is a questionnaire for your entry into the first statewide Hawaii Women Lawyers directory. HWL will compile your responses into booklet form, with full listings alphabetically by last name, and with names only by each area of practice for which you indicate your interest/expertise/desire for clients. We hope the directory will be used as well by community and women's groups as a resource to refer clients.

The directory will be distributed free of charge for all dues paying members (another reason to pay your dues) and for a nominal cost to cover the expenses of production to others. We would like your responses as soon as possible. Deadline for submission of material is January 31, 1984. Please help us make the first HWL directory as inclusive as possible. Return your entry!

DETACH AND MAIL TO HAWAII WOMEN LAWYERS, P. O. BOX 2072, HONOLULU, HI 96805 by JANUARY 31, 1984.

Please supply us only the information you wish to have printed in the directory. The information will be printed both alphabetically by last name, and by the substantive areas of emphasis listed below. We intend this directory to be made available to the community and women's groups as a referral resource. Copies of the directory will be distributed to all dues paying members of HWL free of charge, and may be obtained by others for a nominal cost to defray costs of production.
