Committees:

HWL has several committees all of which are in need of members. The following is a brief summary of the activities of those committees. Please contact the chairperson of each committee for more information.

The Legislative Committee is currently chaired by Dona Hanaike Zen (548-8929) and Sherry Broder (531-6202). Although most active just prior to and during the state legislative session monitoring and lobbying for bills which are of interest to HWL, the Legislative Committee is active throughout the year. The Committee currently is studying the doctrine of comparable worth and its potential in Hawaii. The Committee is also responsible for presenting monthly meetings each year on current legislation.

HWL Membership - It is that time of the year again as HWL's fiscal year comes to an end (6/30/84) and we begin a new fiscal year. HWL urges you to renew your membership or become a member. Your dues are needed to publish and mail the newsletter and to fund the operational costs of various HWL activities.

The Judicial/Career Opportunities Committee is chaired by Leslie Hayashi (521-0400) and is responsible for disseminating information to members and presenting monthly meetings on the topic of career opportunities available. The Committee has a special focus on judicial opportunities and encourages eligible members to apply for those positions.

The Speakers Bureau is chaired by Marilyn Lee (524-8350) and actively solicits members of HWL to be on a list of speakers available to outside groups. HWL gets fairly frequent requests for speakers from our membership.

The Networking Committee is chaired by Norma Titcomb (548-4740). That committee is responsible for maintaining contacts with other groups with similar goals, locally and nationally. The Networking Committee works with the Legislative Committee in coordinating lobbying efforts in the State Legislature.

The Education Committee is chaired by Joyce Neeley (524-8000) and is responsible for most of the monthly seminars presented to HWL membership as well as an annual day long seminar sponsored by HWL on a topic of interest to its membership.

The Membership Committee is co-chaired by Stephanie Gonsalves (521-9200) and Laurie Furuya (526-9744) and is responsible for soliciting new members and for the various social events HWL sponsors during the year (cocktail parties, beach party).

The Awards Committee is chaired by Joyce Neeley (524-8000) and is responsible for selecting recipients for the two awards giving out by HWL at the January installation banquet: Outstanding Woman Lawyer of the Year and the Distinguished Service Award.

The Nominations Committee is chaired by president, Lea Crandall (548-3963) and solicits names of members for nomination for officers and the Board of Directors.
