HWL Monthly Meeting

What You Don't Know May Cost You Thousands!

Failure to keep informed on financial issues can be costly to you and your family. This short presentation focuses on common and costly financial mistakes that can be easily avoided. Speaker Caroline Yamasaki will welcome questions on investments, estate planning, insurance, and other financial matters. Catered lunch will be free!

Location: YWCA, 1040 Richards Street, Room 304 Date: Friday, July 28, 1995 Time: Noon to 1:30

Caroline Yamasaki was born and reared in Denver. After earning her degree in economics at Vanderbilt University, she returned to Denver to work for an investment and financial planning firm. She narrowly escaped becoming a ski bunny by moving to Hawaii. Carol is a vice president at the Hawaiian Trust Company. Prior to joining Hawaiian Trust, she helped establish the trust division for Central Pacific Bank and founded Guardian Trust Company. Carol's diverse financial services background includes experience in the areas of investment, insurance, financial planning, trust, and consultation in legal settlements. She has authored articles for a variety of publications and is a well-known public speaker.

Please call Mary Houghton at 395-9743 to reserve your place for this important event.

Chop Sui Generis

Deputy Attorney General Dawn Chang recently argued and won the case of Barber v. State before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Kudos to Dawn!

The film "From Hawaii to the Holocaust: A Shared Moment in History," the story of the Japanese American involvement in the liberation of European concentration camps during World War II, co-produced by U.H. law professor Judy Weightman, recently receives CINE Golden Eagle Award in Washington, D.C. in March, and the Silver Apple from the National Education Film & Video Festival in May. The film was premiered in New York City at the Japan Society in June, and screened as the Japanese American National Museum in Los Angeles in June.

Judy Weightman is being treated for cancer and is on the road to recovery. Her friends wish her well.

After five years of service at HICLE, Cori Lau will be joining the asbestos unit of the Department of the Attorney General in September. Bravo, Cori, for your terrific efforts at HICLE in keeping us informed and up-to-date on the latest areas in our profession! Mahalo nui loa also for your contributions to the HWL newsletter.
